Step 1.

If you are telling your own story:

- Before you begin telling your story, please videotape yourself reading the on-camera identification statement below into the camera.

If you are interviewing someone else:

- Before you begin the interview, please videotape the interviewee reading the on-camera identification statement below into the camera.

Step 2. Next, please videotape the following people saying their name into the camera:

- everyone who appeared on camera,
- worked behind the camera (videographer and interviewer),
- wrote any of the words spoken, or
- made any other contribution to this video.

On-Camera Identification Statement:

My name is _____. I just signed the CONSENT AND RELEASE AGREEMENT & ASSIGNMENT OF COPYRIGHT, and agree to all of its terms. I understand I have granted the CIC all rights to this video.

Other than myself, the only people who I am aware of to have participated in or contributed to the production of this video are now on camera with me.

By saying their name on camera, each of them are also stating that they have signed the CARA.
