New Flu story

Just in time for flu season, we launched Allison's Story (5:40 minute video) a moving story told by a young woman who gets the flu and ends up on life support and losing a limb due to the infection. Allison shares her message about taking flu seriously. Her story was contributed by partner organization the National Alliance for Aging Research.

We're thrilled that we've already received a request from a Kaiser physician to show Allison's Story to patients. Reminder: Our stories are available to download at no cost from www.shotbyshot.org

I don't want people to ever forget how vaccines continue to save generations across the globe from polio.”

Ina's Polio Story

Ina's Story (written) recounts her life living with polio since she was a toddler, including memories of her treatments as a child. Now, Ina finds herself confronting post-polio syndrome. Even so, she is a tireless champion of immunization, sharing her story to protect others. ShotByShot by the National Alliance for Aging Research.
